

Acceptance tests

For ALL user stories in general:

Tested Requirement	Login in into a account
Quick Description	Once on the log in page: The user must provide email/username and password and press login button to sign in.
Prerequisite	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Database for user accounts connected, configured and deployed.2. Login request handling frontend and backend fully implemented.
Input	Email/Username, password
Expected Output	The console should print successful login along with the user type, email and a Boolean set to true.
Observed Output	The user is redirected to the homepage according to the type of account.
Verdict	Passed
Comments	The login information for the user must be valid.

User story/employer

Tested Requirement	Create a job posting
Quick Description	Once on the job-posting creation page: The employer must be able to enter job title, job position, company name, job description and press the post button to create a job posting.
Prerequisite	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Database for job postings connected, configured and deployed.2. The type of account must be 'EMPLOYER'.3. Job posting handling must be fully implemented
Input	Job title, job position, company name and job description
Expected Output	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The button should show 'posted' instead of post.2. A new job posting should appear in the dataset.
Observed Output
Verdict
Comments	NOT TESTED YET

User story/student

Tested Requirement	Apply for a specific job posting
Quick Description	Once on the specific job post page: The user of type 'STUDENT' must be able to apply for the job by clicking the 'apply' button.
Prerequisite	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Database for job applications connected, configured and deployed.2. Database for job postings connected, configured and deployed.3. The user must be 'STUDENT' type account.
Input	Specific job post page, click to 'apply' button, employer account
Expected Output	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The button must change to display 'applied' instead of 'apply'.2. A second button must appear that must display 'cancel application'.3. The employer must receive the candidate's application.4. In the database, for this specific job, the student id must be appended for the application.
Observed Output
Verdict
Comments	NOT TESTED YET

User story/Admin

Tested Requirement	See all students and employers profiles
Quick Description	Once on the homepage after logging in: The admin must be able to see all students and employers account.
Prerequisite	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Database for user accounts connected, configured and deployed.2. The user must be 'ADMIN' type account.
Input	A successful login page with type of account 'ADMIN'.
Expected Output	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Display all the students and employers account2. A remove button next to each employer and student.
Observed Output
Verdict
Comments	NOT TESTED YET

User story/Head Hunter

Tested Requirement	Refer candidates for jobs
Quick Description	Once on a specific job posting of an employer: The head hunter must be able to see all the applicants and click 'recommend' button to recommend students to employer.
Prerequisite	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Database for user accounts connected, configured and deployed.2. Database for job postings connected, configured and deployed3. Database for job applications connected, configured and deployed.4. The user must be 'HEADHUNTER' type account.
Input	Specific job post page, click to 'recommend button', head-hunter account
Expected Output	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The button must display 'recommended'.2. The employer should receive the recommendations of users.3. In job posting application recommendation, the student id must be appended.
Observed Output
Verdict
Comments	NOT TESTED YET.